hereinafter referred to as: 'Client';

and:

Supplier Name, with its place of business in Country at Full Company Address, duly represented in this matter by Mr./Ms. Full Name, hereinafter referred to as: 'Supplier';

hereinafter jointly referred to as: 'Parties';

Whereas:

- The Client operates a business engaged in (inter alia) dropshipping;
- The Supplier operates a business engaged in (inter alia) sourcing, storing, packing, and shipping products;
- The Client requires the services of the Supplier;
- The Parties wish to lay down the conditions of this service in the present Supplier Agreement;

agree as follows:

Article 1: Term

The Parties agree that this Agreement shall commence on the effective date specified below and continue as long as mutually agreed.

Article 2: Cancellation

Either Party may terminate this Agreement at any time by providing written notice to the other Party if dissatisfied with the program or its results.

Article 3: Supplier's Role

The Supplier shall provide product fulfillment services for all sales obtained by the Client. The Supplier shall not be involved in the transaction between the Client and their customers.

Article 4: Shipping

- The Supplier agrees to process all orders within 3 to 5 business days.
- In the event of lost or delayed shipments, the Supplier must notify the Client immediately and provide reasonable support in resolving the issue.

Article 5: Billing

The Client may pay via a deposit on the Supplier's dashboard or settle payments on a daily basis. Orders will only be processed after the Client has provided proof of payment.

Article 6: Fees and Charges

- The Supplier shall provide the Client with a detailed list of all items, including prices, shipping costs, and any additional charges.
- The Client shall be solely responsible for determining the price charged to their customers.
- The Client shall pay all fees and charges for items shipped by the Supplier directly to the customer.

Article 7 – Customs and Import Duties

7.1 DDU Shipping Requirement
The Supplier shall exclusively use shipping methods that ensure the end customer is solely responsible for the payment of all customs duties, import taxes, VAT (if applicable), and any related charges. This shipping arrangement is hereinafter referred to as “Delivered Duty Unpaid” or “DDU”, as defined under Incoterms 2000. The Supplier assumes full responsibility for all costs, risks, and obligations associated with DDU shipments, including the complete handling of transportation to the Client’s customers up to the point of delivery or transfer of ownership.

7.2 Retrospective Declaration
By signing this Agreement, the Supplier retrospectively declares that all shipments processed and dispatched in the performance of the Services—including all prior shipments—have been executed under the DDU shipping term in accordance with Incoterms 2000. This confirms that all customs duties, import taxes, and related charges are the sole responsibility of the recipient (the end customer), and that the Supplier has never acted as the importer of record on behalf of the Client or otherwise assumed such obligations.

7.3 Prohibition of IOSS or Similar Systems
The Supplier explicitly confirms that no shipments have been processed using the Import One-Stop Shop (IOSS)registration scheme or any comparable mechanism involving the prepayment of VAT to a tax authority by the Supplier. This provision is essential to ensure that no VAT or indirect tax liabilities can arise for the Client in connection with the Supplier’s shipments.

7.4 Compliance Assurance
The Supplier agrees to provide, upon request, all relevant documentation necessary to demonstrate compliance with the DDU shipping method and the non-use of IOSS or equivalent tax systems. Failure to comply with this provision constitutes a material breach of this Agreement and may result in immediate termination and full liability for any financial, fiscal, or legal consequences incurred by the Client.

7.5 Indemnity
The Supplier shall fully indemnify and hold harmless the Client from and against any claims, assessments, penalties, fines, or other liabilities—whether direct or indirect—relating to customs duties, import taxes, VAT, or other fiscal obligations arising from non-compliance with the DDU requirement or the unauthorized use of IOSS or similar systems.

7.6 Supersession of Prior Agreements
This Agreement supersedes and replaces all prior agreements, understandings, and communications—whether written or oral—between the Client and the Supplier. The Supplier further confirms that, since [insert date], they have consistently applied the DDU shipping method in accordance with Incoterms 2000 in the course of delivering the Services under all previous arrangements.

Article 8: Return Policy

- The Supplier offers a 7-day return policy for undamaged, unworn items with tags intact. Returns are at the expense of the customer or Client.
- Damaged or defective items must be reported within 7 days of receipt for a refund or replacement.
- Claims made after 7 days of receipt will not be processed.

Article 9: Confidentiality

- Both Parties agree to keep all business-related information, including but not limited to pricing, customer details, and sales data, confidential.
- This obligation shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

Article 10: Severability

If any provision or section of this Agreement is deemed unlawful, void, or unenforceable, it shall be severed without affecting the validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions.

Article 11: Effectiveness

This Agreement shall commence on 3 November 2026

This Agreement is governed by the laws of The Netherlands.

Disputes shall first be resolved amicably within 30 days. If unresolved, disputes shall be settled under the arbitration rules of the Dutch courts by one arbitrator, with proceedings conducted in English. The arbitrator’s decision shall be binding.

This Agreement supersedes all prior agreements and may only be modified by a written agreement signed by both Parties.
